Sirius

(The one on the left is 4A15 Lui Wai Sum..)

You may think that I'm silly,
or something is going crazy.
But I'll tell you that I'm serious.
The star that shines the brightest in the night is called Sirius.

Brighter than the sunlight,
but only called starlight.
Shall we see the twilight?
My friend.

You're not the warm sun in the sky,
but Wai Sum by my side
precious like the sun.
You're so inspiring,
cause you're the only one.

You not only learn from teachers,
but also friends.
You have strengths and weaknesses,
and so do I.

There are hundreds of reasons why I admire you.
You have good social skills which I don't have.
If I said I had never felt jealous, I'm lying.
Also you have the indomitable spirit,
like the wolves that you like.

Entry 1

I have so much to learn from you
--- how to become more confident,
and ways to get along with friends.

You may think that I'm silly,
or something going crazy.
But I'll tell you that I'm serious.
The star that shines the brightest in the night is called Sirius.

You are the reason why I am so serious.
My friend, my only best friend.
My Sirius.

My Mum

“Remember to go to bed early!”
Like a punctual alarm clock ringing every night.
But the busy daytime just goes away.
And my mood is depressed as fast as the speed of the subway.
Happy hours shouldn't be in my sleep.
If not, the only fun is “counting sheep”.
Perhaps or playing hide and seek with the moon.
Oh my gosh!
How boring is this?
How come I keep listening to this every night?
Really a persistent person.

“Remember to bring an umbrella.”
Like a prophet that knows everything about daily life.
It seems this is a must-have skill for a housewife.
“I have to sleep during the day!” said the old sun secretly.
The prophet must have overheard the sun's whisper.
She is not the sun of a sister.
Why does she know it will rain soon?
She offers sage advice to me.
She is really amazing to me.

“Remember to take a rest.”
Like a warm quilt in the winter.
Once, twice, three times.
She can notice my emotions often.

Entry 2

She is as cool as a cucumber.
Tell me to relax in September.
For me, there is always a lovely seat.
And why is she so sweet?
Don't know what makes her today.
Maybe the magic of love.

Who is she?
My prefect and adorable mom!

A writer's story

Touching story appeared
A writer from Hong Kong
Young girl studied in Taiwan
Looks like a kitten
Ocean is her favourite
Running out of courage to pursue the dream

Light up the darkness
Enter an unknown world
Enjoy every single moment

Taught me that being
Alive will face much more difficulties
Yesterday has already gone
Let go of all the matters
Only do your best today, and get Ready for a better tomorrow

Love is needed
Even though the world is receded
Everyone deserves to love and be loved

Birthday and Suffering Day

“Happy birthday to you!”
Today is my birthday.
I put on my lovely birthday hat,
and held my dearing cat,
listening to my family sing me a birthday song.
I closed my eyes and made a wish — everyone can be healthy and happy.

“Congratulations! It is a girl.”
Today is the day of suffering.
After the ordeal in the operation room,
she was lying in bed, eyes full of love and she kissed her at last.
That was not just a day of suffering,
she received a gift from heaven.

Going through all these with her.
Who is she?
A woman bears pain and takes responsibility,
My dearest mother.

Entry 4

The surprise that I came to the world was accompanied by my mother's pain.
In the womb,
she protected me every second.
Because of me,
she couldn't sleep well every night.
Because of her,
I can live safely and happily in this world.
I love you, my mother.

The Love of Mother

It was in spring weather,
dated on 18th October.
A woman lying in hospital,
giving life to one little.

Years pass by,
Sun rises in sky
Love is infinity,
when having fun in primary,
working hard in secondary,
her love is always around me.

Caring me for 15 years,
her words are always in my ears.
Even when I grow up,
celebrating with a bottle of wine.
She's always by my side.

My Friend, My Sister

You are the first friend I met in this world.
Remember since I was small, wherever you go and I follow.
A lot of things have changed by the time, I know.
But our friendship would never get old.

Always listen to what I say.
And cheers me in your own way.
You told me to be brave.
Enjoy my life and every moment that I create.

You are a star.
The light in the darkness.
When I need you, you are always there.
Shining to me and telling me not to be fear.

An Inspiring Person

How can one be inspiring?
Being considerate, successful and aspiring
Gandhi, Mother Teresa, Martin Luther King
Those are examples you heard people talking

Alone in a shabby hut, without support from college
Marie Curie insisted her discovery of mineral knowledge
When Marie earned praise worldwide
She never forgot to let her motherland pride.

Despite being granted to be great
She believed that her research should not be capsule
She said " Radioactivity does not belong to one"
" It is a gift that should be shared with everyone"

Marie Curie has been a role model to all
Her determination, loyalty and selfless
Has yet led to her success
Is Marie an inspiring person?
Only time could tell

Light in cracks

When the haze has a fissure
I see you in the sky
You just burn like the fire which cannot get rid of my eye

His voice saved me out of the stifling tin which was delighted as bathing in the spring wind
Scoured the mud out of me

The melody of the song
crossing the thorns of my heart
Clearing the weeds in my inner garden and smoothing out the injured part

JJ, who was my light at a low point

Entry 10

The mirror girl

She is never defeated

Small eyes, charcoal skin, and mushroom hair
She doesn't look attractive but never feels Inferiore
Want to win and get a recognition are her priority

The one who lives in the mirror

She is never negligent
Clumsy limbs, dilly-dally, and deafening voice
She doesn't procrastinate and even does great jobs
Soft fire makes sweet malt is her pursuit

The one who lives in the mirror

She is never pessimistic
A downgrade, game loss, and malicious criticism
She doesn't care what's more to encourage herself
Don't be afraid and go ahead is what she wants

The one who lives in the mirror

She is not Snow White's stepmother
She is as small as a bird's feather
Her goal is to walk longer and further
Don't flinch when meeting a monster

Entry 10

The mirror girl inspires me a lot
Never answer "yes" without consideration
Never blame me for affliction
Never immersed in emotion
Never be beaten by the life desperation

The mirror girl
I get to her signal through her pure eyes
I wanna be a friend of her then I say
"Hello, I am Moon, nice to meet you!"
The mirror girl replied
"Hello, I am Moon, nice to meet you!"
