Describe and explain your drawing: (about 80 words)

In my drawing, there is a girl called Dorothy. She and her dog are blown to the magical land of Oz where she meets a scarecrow who wants to have a brain, a tinman who wants a heart and a lion who wants courage. They go to see the great Wizard together because they need his help. On the way, they face some difficulties but they can still keep smiling to face them. Also, they encourage and comfort each other. Therefore, they all smile and feel happy in my drawing.

This book tells me that when we encounter any unexpected difficulties, we should face them with courage, keep an open mind and never give up easily. Like the characters in the story, they pursue their dreams bravely and they achieve their aims successfully at last. Actually, I like to have a friend like Dorothy because she is brave, self-initiated, compassionate and full of love. Although she is not as smart as the scarecrow, not as solid as the tinman and not as strong as the lion, she is still the leader of them. She saves everyone in several dangerous moments. When they first meet the lion, all of them are scared. Then the lion chases the dog of Dorothy! Dorothy slaps him and blames him for bullying the weak. It shows Dorothy's courage and uprightness. If I had a friend like Dorothy, she could accompany me to face problems. I'm not brave enough to cope with difficulties. I'm willing to take my responsibility to complete my tasks, even though they are not easy. All I need is a companion!
