1. Give your impression by means of a drawing.

2. Describe and explain your drawing: (about 80 words)

I draw this picture because I think it can let readers know ziplining is an exciting and joyful game. We can be like a bird flying in the sky and look downward flying over the forest. Also, we can know more about natural animals and plants. Tilly's face can show us that she is enjoying ziplining and it is not scary. This picture can also let me know ziplining is not dangerous to play. It is very fast and we can feel it is cool.

3. Comment and Sharing: (about 100 words)

This book talks about Tilly's first attempt at ziplining. Her friend Darius told her ziplining was a new kind of adventure and it was fun. Therefore, they arrived at the national park and began their adventure. Tilly felt excited and joyful after trying ziplining. The views were beautiful.

After I read this story, Tilly aroused my interest in playing ziplining. I think it would be fun and the views are beautiful. Also, I think ziplining let me know more about the world and nature. Ziplining can make people happy and make them more interested in exploring nature.
